Callouts

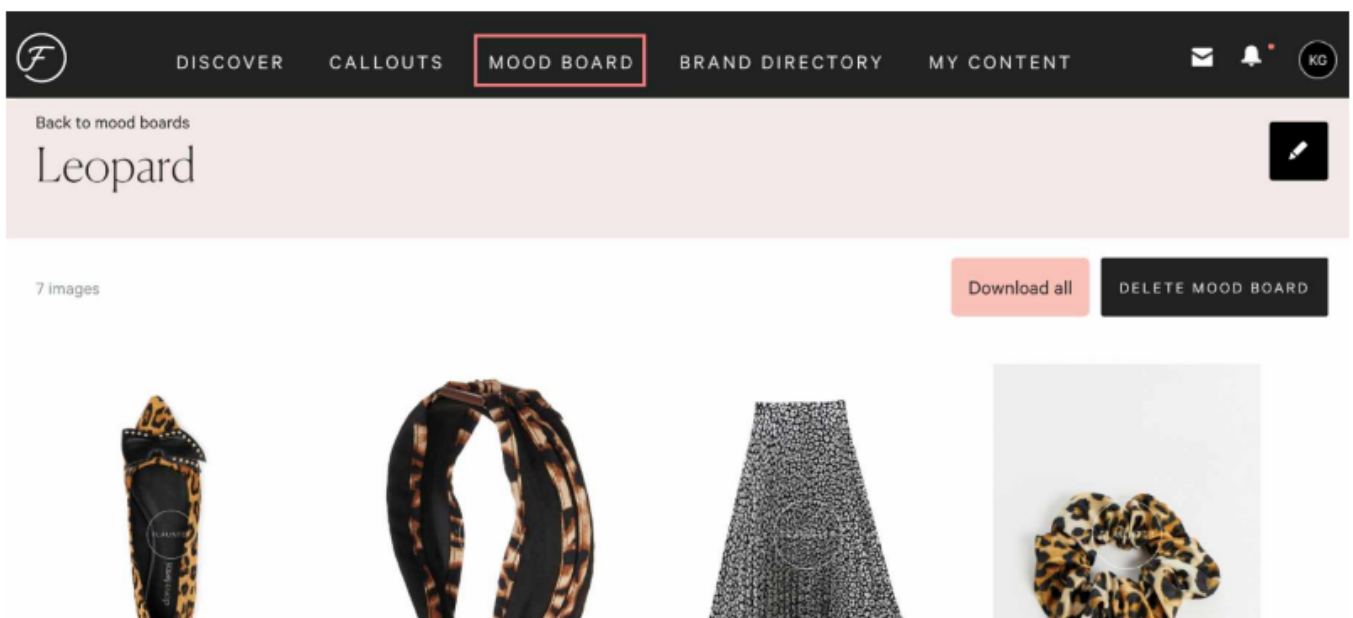

We've made it easier for you to post a request on Flaunter for brand images, samples or stories. Click Callouts from the black navigation panel, then click 'post a callout' to submit a new request to our network of brands and agencies.

Mood boards

Your image edits or mood boards can be accessed by clicking Mood boards from the black navigation panel.

You can now mood board multiple images at once by clicking the white circle at the top left corner of an image tile to multi-select.

Brand directory and brand profiles

You can browse all the brands on Flaunter by clicking Brand Directory from the black navigation panel.

1. Search the brand directory, filter by name or browse in grid or list view.
2. Click View brand to see the About, Albums and Documents the brand has uploaded.
3. If you'd like to get updates from or access a brand regularly, click Follow Brand. This will save the brand into the 'Following' tab of your Brand Directory.
4. Quickly message the brand's manager by clicking the white envelope that appears next to Follow Brand.

My content

Click My Content from the black navigation panel to find all the cc downloaded or received from brands.

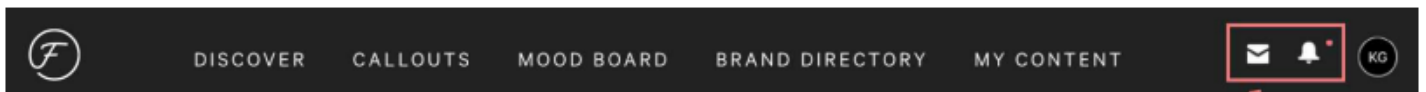

never hunt for links or images you've been sent in an email again! For more on how to use showrooms and request sample loans click here.

Messages and notifications

Find your messages to and from brand managers by clicking the envelope symbol from the top right of the screen.

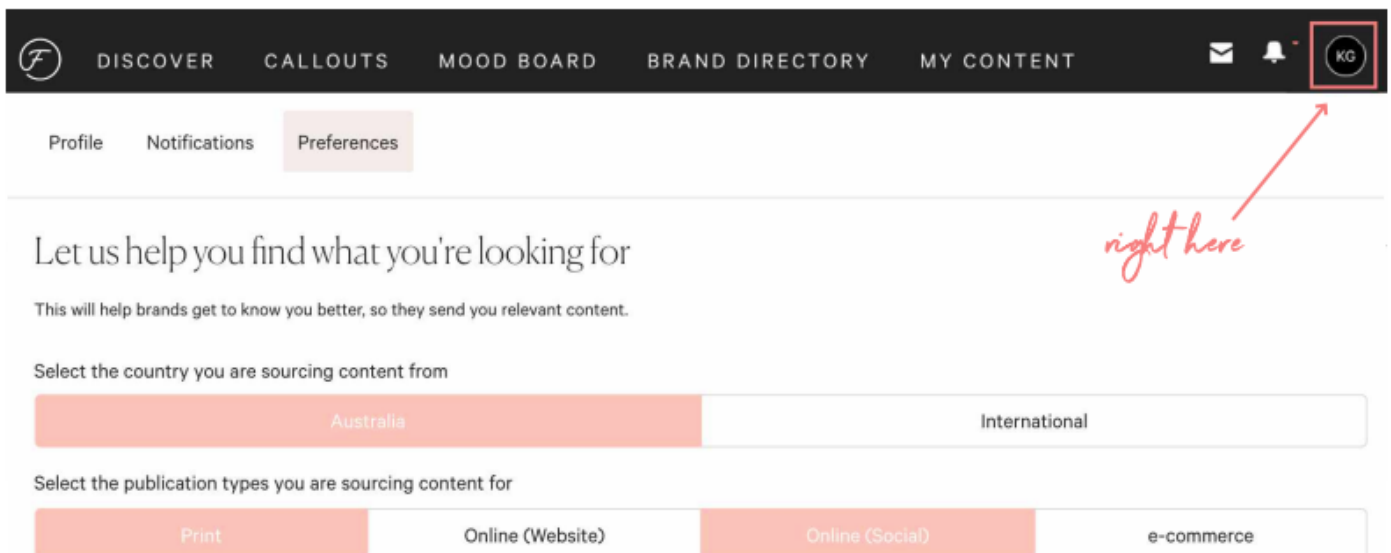

Your account notifications can be accessed by clicking the bell symbol from the top right of the screen. You'll be sent notifications about activity such as callouts submissions, showroom invites, brand messages and system alerts.

Profile, settings and preferences

Click your user icon in the top right corner of the page to access and edit your profile, notification settings and preferences.

Brand managers will be able to view a limited profile so making sure you have details such as publication/s and content preferences up to date will help brands deliver you the most relevant content.
